

Please don't loosen the rules for broadcast ownership. They are already too loose. By limiting how many broadcast facilities can be owned by the same company, you insure that we receive news and information from varied points of view. This is essential in a democracy. Allowing greater concentration of ownership of broadcast facilities can only harm our democracy.